

FRIEZE MUSIC 2006

International Music Underground Rocks Leicester Square

13 – 14 October 2006

Sunn 0))), described by the New York Times as "not unlike listening to an Indian raga in the middle of an earthquake" and by Julian Cope in the Guardian as "taking metal to places you never imagined", are to headline Frieze Music 2006, along with Berlin-based avant-guard rock trio Liars.

Frieze Music is the off-site music programme for Frieze Art Fair which has won critical acclaim over the past three years. The programme in 2006 takes place at the London Hippodrome on 13 and 14 October.

This year's line-up, conceived as a meeting of darker and lighter sides of the international rock underground, is the result of a collaboration between regular Frieze Music curators – musician Steve Mackey (Pulp) and Dan Fox, Associate Editor frieze – and forward thinking London promoter and label Upset the Rhythm.

Renowned for eschewing the usual clichés of metal in favour of stomach-churning volume, Sunn 0))) headline the first night joined by Cincinnati's psychedelic revisionist Burning Star Core, Leopard Leg - a 12-piece all female drum troupe from Brighton - and Birmingham-born sonic artist Russell Haswell.

Liars - whose third album Drum's Not Dead, recorded in a former East German government radio facility, was released to critical acclaim earlier this year - headline the second night, supported by San Franciscan post-punk polemicists Erase Errata, one man pop dynamo BARR and dreamy West Coast ensemble The Curtains.

Frieze Music is sponsored by Freedom Beer.

Editors' Notes

Frieze Music

Past Frieze Music programmes have included a night curated by Franz Ferdinand with the Kaiser Chiefs and The Kills (2003) and a one-off, sell out performance by legendary composer and musician Karlheinz Stockhausen (2005).

Upset the Rhythm

Upset the Rhythm is a live music promoter and record label based in London, which is collectively run with a sense of fun and a DIY ethic. Their aim is to provide a platform for an eclectic array of artists from the US & European underground, whilst showcasing and supporting new and often unheard of, musicians from UK.
